AN INTRODUCTION

A native of Iowa, Jordan grew up in Decorah, and attended Central College where he received a degree in Psychology and Political Science. He continued his education at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire where he earned a Masters degree in Education.

Jordan transitioned to the financial industry in 2015 after spending 4 seasons coaching college football. Wanting stability for his family, he explored opportunities where he could use his skillset as an educator and strategic thinker while fulfilling a passion for helping people. He finds it rewarding to see people exceed their own goals and reach their full financial potential.

Jordan and his wife, Hannah, live in Cedar Falls with their miniature schnauzer, Lonna. As an assistant coach for the Aplington-Parkersburg football team, he has a passion for sports and you can often find him watching a football or basketball game. He is also on the Steering Committee of the 100+ Men Who Care and is an active member of Prairie Lakes Church.
